Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp. This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Report for Leonardo DiCapro Your Life Progressions for Apr 22, 2006

Libra on the First Cusp

A strong desire for companionship and sociability prevails. You are desirous of maintaining peace and harmony at all costs. You try to be just and fair when making decisions, as you attempt to see both sides of an issue. Women are likely to enter your life, helping or hindering personal or business affairs. You may be called upon to attend social functions or group-related activities (conventions or business meetings) in connection with your vocation. You prefer working in collaboration with others, rather than alone. As a result you may be drawn into a partnership or work in close association with groups of people. There is the possibility of entering marriage. For those already married, issues surrounding your partner will require your undivided attention. Be sure to maintain balance in your system by drinking plenty of water, which may help prevent possible kidney problems. The position of your progressed ascendant ruler, Venus, will provide additional insight into circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Uranus in the First House

Expect the unexpected, for herein starts an eventful life. It will be difficult to maintain a steady routine existence as many changes and happenings are likely to occur from time to time. You are becoming independent in thought, action, and deed, and will form your own opinions regardless of what others may think of them. There is a natural curiosity connected with the unusual, the bizarre, and the unconventional. Circumstances will introduce new and interesting friends into your social circle. In many cases, some will leave just as quickly as they entered. You may want to start or join a professional or fraternal organization. The field of technology, aeronautics, computers, television, radio, CBs, or astrology will touch upon your life during this time.

Scorpio on the Second Cusp

You are becoming more energetic and resourceful in your ability to increase personal finances. Greater secrecy surrounds your monetary affairs. You have learned from the past that family and certain other people may try to borrow funds from you. You have become more astute in requesting papers to be signed with definite rules for repayment, if and when you do make loans. Your monetary situation will undergo periodic changes. Your partner may retire or seek disability compensation. You may gain through inheritance, alimony, or insurance benefits. From time to time, you will have to contact your insurance agent for weather damages to your home or accidents with your car. Be sure to keep records intact in case of IRS auditing. This is an excellent placement for gain from the resources of others.

Moon in Sagittarius

The secretive, sensitive trends of the past few years are changing for the better. An optimistic, outgoing, and genial attitude will draw new friends and acquaintances into your social circle. They will be of different nationality, and from all walks of life. If travel is not feasible, than correspondences from distant places are likely. You are positive in your views concerning your future aspirations. There is a willingness to seek new opportunities for advancement in business and in personal affairs -- new vocational interests in which there is freedom of movement and decision. Thoughts will be centered on whether or not you should return to school and further your education. There is a possibility that religion, travel, publications, legal matters, or in-laws will require personal attention. This is a good time to join a health spa or participate in an exercise program that increases natural energy. Note the house position of your progressed Moon to determine the area of life this sign is likely to influence.

Moon in the Second House

Personal finances and movable possessions play an important role in the scheme of daily activities. The purchase of major items must be weighed against affordability. You may be forced to view your finances with an objective outlook. Determine where and how to increase personal savings and, at the same time, alter poor spending habits. This can be an emotional period in connection with monetary affairs. You may feel a threatening loss of security when finances fluctuate and bills are overdue. The motivational influences most likely to reflect on finances are revealed by the sign position of your progressed Moon.

Moon Square Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Feb 7, 2006

Self-control is the theme word during these three months. You are likely to exude an air of overconfidence and expansiveness. There is the possibility of exceeding expenditures through extravagant purchases. This short trend is not conducive for legal matters, signing important papers or contracts, travel, higher education, religious disputes, or negotiations. Apply moderation in all things. Avoid making unnecessary changes and take care of your health. Don't overeat or drink too much, and guard against strenuous exercises.

Moon Sextile Pluto (Prg-Nat) Feb 11, 2006

A positive time in life in which new beginnings or changes take place. You will have the will-power to eliminate that which is no longer useful or banish undesirable habits such as overeating, smoking, or nail-biting. This is a good time to review and update, if necessary, your home, car, or life insurance. Investigate investment programs that can help you achieve emotional and financial security. There is the likelihood of monetary or material gain through the resources of others.

Moon Conjunction Neptune (Prg-Nat) Feb 21, 2006

During this trend you may experience prophetic dreams, psychic phenomena, or the ability to read the other person's mind. This is a creative period that will enable you to escape from the harshness and reality of life by indulging yourself in painting, music lessons, dancing, ceramics, or cake decorating. You may come in contact with unusually gifted people. Some may be phonies, pretending to be something they are not. Others may be mentally, emotionally, or physically handicapped. Keep an invisible barrier around you, to guard against the distraught ones that will attempt to use you as a sounding board for their troubles. Hospitals and other places of confinement may directly or indirectly touch upon your life.

Moon Sextile Pluto (Prg-Prg) Mar 5, 2006

A positive time in life in which new beginnings or changes take place. You will have the will-power to eliminate that which is no longer useful or banish undesirable habits such as overeating, smoking, or nail-biting. This is a good time to review and update, if necessary, your home, car, or life insurance. Investigate investment programs that can help you achieve emotional and financial security. There is the likelihood of monetary or material gain through the resources of others.

Moon Conjunction Neptune (Prg-Prg) Mar 26, 2006

During this trend you may experience prophetic dreams, psychic phenomena, or the ability to read the other person's mind. This is a creative period that will enable you to escape from the harshness and reality of life by indulging yourself in painting, music lessons, dancing, ceramics, or cake decorating. Keep an invisible barrier around you, to guard against the distraught ones that will attempt to use you as a sounding board for their troubles. Hospitals and other places of confinement may directly or indirectly touch upon your life.

Moon Square Jupiter (Prg-Prg) Apr 17, 2006

Self-control is the theme word during these three months. You are likely to exude an air of overconfidence and expansiveness. There is the possibility of exceeding expenditures through extravagant purchases. This short trend is not conducive for legal matters, signing important papers or contracts, travel, higher education, religious disputes, or negotiations. Apply moderation in all things. Avoid making unnecessary changes and take care of your health. Don't overeat or drink too much, and guard against strenuous exercises.

Moon Semisquare Uranus (Prg-Nat) Aug 6, 2006

Mental irritability and an erratic state of mind may lean toward abrupt actions without proper forethought. Rash and hasty decisions at this time may be cause for regret later when this trend has passed. Be prepared for changes that you may not like, but that may be necessary in the scheme of things. Be selective of new relationships, friends, and the opposite sex. You may be drawn to the bohemian or peculiar types that will not be conducive to your well-being. This is a time in life when one becomes bored with daily routines and desires to run off into new horizons.

Moon Semisquare Mercury (Prg-Nat) Aug 15, 2006

Your mind is not as alert as it should be, nor are you thinking in logical terms. Give careful consideration to what you say or put in writing. Faulty judgment can place you under heavy burdens or obligations, so it is best to sign nothing of importance during these three months. Avoid possible disputes or misunderstandings with relatives. It may be unwise to travel or consider the purchase of a car. In general terms, you should ignore idle gossip, confide in no one, and be your own counsel.

Moon Sextile Moon (Prg-Nat) Aug 27, 2006

Beneficial changes of minor consequences should make for an interesting period. This is a good time to seek occupational changes, make new friends, travel, move, or purchase real estate. Women, in particular and people in general will sense your emotional sensitivity and possibly be of beneficial assistance in personal or business interests.

Moon Semisquare Uranus (Prg-Prg) Sep 25, 2006

Mental irritability and an erratic state of mind may lean toward abrupt actions without proper forethought. Rash and hasty decisions at this time may be cause for regret later when this trend has passed. Be prepared for changes that you may not like, but that may be necessary in the scheme of things. Be selective of new relationships, friends, and the opposite sex. You may be drawn to the bohemian or peculiar types that will not be conducive to your well-being. This is a time in life when one becomes bored with daily routines and desires to run off into new horizons.

Moon Quincunx Saturn (Prg-Prg) Oct 28, 2006

You may be required to take on an additional responsibility that could easily drain your energy -- perhaps working longer hours at your place of employment or having to care for an ill parent or other older member of the family. You should maintain an optimistic state of mind, and avoid complaining. Mental depression will only hinder future advancements and possibly have an affect upon your health.

Moon Conjunction Mercury (Prg-Prg) Oct 30, 2006

A very active and busy period, involving a variety of interests that will make it difficult to concentrate on one particular subject. People, phone calls, and correspondence will make inroads on your time and result in wasted energy, unless you stand firm on your priorities. This can be a highly productive time for buying & selling, writing, studying, attending lectures, seminars, or speaking at conventions. Advance business interests and negotiate contracts. Changes may require adjustments to new routines. Take time out to visit brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, and other close relatives. Accept new friends into your social circle, and do a bit of traveling. Take advantage of these few months to seek intellectual pursuits for mental improvement.

Moon Quincunx Saturn (Prg-Nat) Dec 10, 2006

You may be required to take on an additional responsibility that could easily drain your energy -- perhaps working longer hours at your place of employment or having to care for an ill parent or other older member of the family. You should maintain an optimistic state of mind, and avoid complaining. Mental depression will only hinder future advancements and possibly have an affect upon your health.

Moon Opposition Midheaven (Prg-Nat) Jan 2, 2007

There is an emotional pull between family responsibilities and career interests. You may have to find a way in which to blend the two areas together. Changes are likely to affect your immediate environment, through the possibility of moving or enlargement of your present home. Purchase or sale of property may also be given consideration.

Moon Sextile Ascendant (Prg-Prg) Jan 17, 2007

Emotional stability and good judgment can open the door to new opportunities for advancement. Seek positive changes in all directions of life, whether vocational, domestic, or personal. You exude great rapport at this time. Social contacts with women, and the general public, can produce beneficial results. Family matters should be on even keel, with a general feeling of contentment.

Moon Square Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Jan 27, 2007

Emotional and domestic difficulties, especially where women are concerned. They are likely to be a source of irritation or interference with personal plans. This could result in a break-up of close emotional ties -- perhaps a separation from a loved one or parent. If running for public office, it would be wise to seek the counsel of someone experienced in public relations. Your own image will not project as well as you would prefer. A PR person can help to smooth the rough edges.

Moon Conjunction Sun (Prg-Prg) Feb 20, 2007

A new cycle of experience is being introduced into your life. For preventive measures, it might be a good idea to get a health check-up and encourage others with whom you have a close bond to do the same. You will want to be in the best of health and mental frame of mind to tackle the new activities or directions that lie in the near future. You can expect these changes to affect business, personal affairs, close relationships, or environmental conditions. You may feel a restless urging to seek new associations or discard old and outmoded ones. There is the possibility of relocating, moving, or establishing new business techniques. An inner feeling of self-confidence will help you in determining your goals and objectives.

Moon Semisquare Mars (Prg-Nat) May 26, 2007

Excitement and increased acceleration of energy flow can create hasty or impulsive behavior. You should consider the consequences before giving vent to outbursts of feelings and temper, which can lead to disputes and possible separation. Avoid accepting new and challenging situations, without adequate knowledge of what it entails. Being too aggressive and sure of yourself can lead to difficulties and trouble. Find a constructive outlet for this new flow of energy, and act discreetly and in moderation.

Moon Sextile Uranus (Prg-Nat) Oct 14, 2007

You may be highly intuitive, inspirational, and inventive during this trend. Make the most of all unexpected opportunities that may come your way. Expand your horizons through new interest or studies, especially the technical or unusual kind such as electronics, computers, or astrology. New, magnetic, stimulating, and unconventional friends and associations will be made. Enlarge social contact by joining clubs and organizations. Expect sudden and drastic changes which may be disturbing at first, yet beneficial in many ways.

Moon Sextile Mercury (Prg-Nat) Oct 23, 2007

A very fortunate and successful trend under which to study and learn new subjects. Concentrate on improving your mentality in all directions. Favorable for expansion of business and negotiation of contracts. Write books, handle neglected correspondence, and travel. Plan pleasurable outings with brothers and sisters and other close relatives. You have good, sound judgment at this time, and should be successful in reaching satisfactory decisions concerning future gains and expansion.

Moon Sextile Uranus (Prg-Prg) Dec 5, 2007

You may be highly intuitive, inspirational, and inventive during this trend. Make the most of all unexpected opportunities that may come your way. Expand your horizons through new interest or studies, especially the technical or unusual kind such as electronics, computers, or astrology. New, magnetic, stimulating, and unconventional friends and associations will be made. Enlarge social contact by joining clubs and organizations. Expect sudden and drastic changes which may be disturbing at first, yet beneficial in many ways.

Moon Conjunction Venus (Prg-Prg) Dec 11, 2007

This should be a pleasurable three-month period in which everything goes well. You may be feeling rather content, peaceful, and happy. Social affairs are activated with baby showers, weddings, the theater, or just dining out with close friends. Your emotions and feelings are aroused and eager for new and lasting attachments. Opportunities are favored for meeting someone special, getting engaged, married, or receiving gifts and invitations. This type of energy is especially helpful for those in the mood for interior decorating, entertaining, having their hair styled, or purchasing new clothes. A fairly good period for finances, investments, and purchases in general.

Mercury in Sagittarius

Your unbending and obstinate mentality is lessening in intensity as your Mercury progresses into the free-spirited sign of Sagittarius. You will have to be very careful now and in the future, to avoid being misunderstood. It's not so much what you say, but how you phrase the words. In the process of relaxing your mental inner tension, you may become more forthright in your speech and too direct in your approach, without pausing to consider the effect it may have on other people. This placement of Mercury is likely to promote long-distance contacts through letters, phone calls, and travels. On occasion you may be called upon to play the role of instructor -- some will do so in schools, while others will be teaching new techniques in their vocational field. Brothers, sisters, or you yourself, may temporarily move to a distant city. It is possible, in some instances, that legal issues may arise with neighbors or the affairs of siblings.

Mercury in the Second House

Financial gain is possible through new outlets such as public speaking, writing, teaching, clerical occupations, short travels, and commercial affairs. Also, through the printing press, books, cassette tapes, and the communication field as a telephone operator or working with radio and television. Your mind will be concentrated on various ways to increase personal funds, resulting in more than one avenue for monetary gain. It is possible that you may have to keep financial records as in bookkeeping, payroll, or personal reports on gas, oil, and auto upkeep used in connection with business travels. Do not permit undue pressure from others to push you into signing important papers that may create a serious financial commitment. Matters dealing with brothers, sisters, or other relatives may react in some way on monetary affairs.

Mercury Semisquare Uranus (Prg-Prg) Jan 6, 2006

There will be a need for self-control during this trend, if you are to avoid going to extremes.

You are likely to make rash and impulsive decisions, or lean toward new and far-out ideas that may be impractical and unacceptable at this time. Your stubborn adherence to this new line of thought may give you the reputation of being uncooperative. Others may regard you as being a bit eccentric because you may change your mind or decisions as abruptly as you made them. Avoid repeating gossip and rumors that may later be distorted and used against you, resulting in a break-up of close attachments or friendships. Use caution in everything you say or sign while traveling, and around electrical wires or equipment.

Mars in Sagittarius

Others will begin to notice and like your genial nature and relaxed attitude as Mars progresses into the sign of Sagittarius. New channels for increased physical energy may lead to active participation in sports or health spas. You may decide to further your education or be required to learn new mechanical skills through on-the-job training programs. A certain degree of restlessness is likely to prevail. If not kept under control, boredom can lead to dissipation of interests, involving you in more projects that you can possibly handle effectively. You may also think you have more time than there actually is. When you get behind, you have to rush to try and get it all finished. Sometimes this rushing results in careless accidents to the hip, joints, or lower back. Brothers-in-law, foreigners, men who reside in distant cities, and those from professional backgrounds may have some influence upon your life.

Mars in the Second House

Financial success depends upon the type of personal effort you apply to the accumulation of monetary gains. On the whole you should prosper, as you have the ability for innovative ideas in new lines of endeavor. When extravagant tendencies hit you from time to time (creating difficulties with finances) you can come up with enterprising methods for new avenues of monetary increase. Circumstances in life are likely to create a situation where you may have to take the lead in handling personal finances. You may be placed in a position where you may have to make important monetary decisions yourself. If you have a business, it will be difficult to avoid spending lavishly on equipment and office supplies. A young man or an assertive type of individual may come up with challenging offers and new suggestions.

Mars Sesquiquadrate Saturn (Prg-Prg) Jul 30, 2007

A trying period of frustrations, hardship, and delays. Outbursts of temper and impulsive actions can result in resentment from others. Separation and break-up of close ties are possible. Avoid conflicts with bosses, government officials, and parents. There is the possibility of accidents or injuries to the bony structure of the body.

Neptune in the Second House

You'll have to remain on your toes and alert at all times where personal finances are concerned. Matters can get so confused, even when you are not at fault. Bank statements can get lost or computers go haywire, indicating insufficient funds and setting you off into a state of frenzy trying to prove you are not in error. Save all receipts, especially medical and hospital bills. Keep your pay stubs until the promised raise or bonus has been received, or the overtime paid. Being gullible at this time will not merit you financial gains. Hidden or unforeseen monetary rewards will surprise you -- a forgotten dividend check is received or a friend pays back an old loan. Whatever the case may be, you will experience this from time to time. For one reason or another, you may be tempted to have a secret savings account or hide money away that no one knows about. You will get more enjoyment out of your personal funds if you can afford a cottage by the lake, a trailer in the woods, or a small boat for fishing.

Sagittarius on the Third Cusp

Bitter resentments of past hurts are slowly diminishing as you develop a strong sense of justice and optimism. Religion, social values, and philosophical subjects become pronounced. Your good natured-attitude may find you promising more than you can actually deliver. As a result, you may find yourself backed up against the wall, wondering how you got yourself in such a predicament. You are more apt to have communications with people in faraway places, foreigners, or those of a different race. During this trend it is possible a brother or sister may move to a distant city. You are likely to have more contact with relatives of your marriage partner. You have to be careful that differences in opinions do not lead to quarrels and misunderstandings with close kin.

Sun in Sagittarius

The progression of your Sun sign from Scorpio to Sagittarius can be a big plus in character improvement. Others will notice a lessening of intensity in your attitude. Your nature is more controlled, open, and free. There is greater strength of character and self-confidence. Your new philosophical attitude will produce outstanding opportunities for advancement. Possible changes in your career may require additional education or on-the-job training. Travel, dealing with foreigners, printing, or wide-scale communications may become a part of your vocational duties. A knowledgeable person, in all likelihood a male, will be instrumental in acquiring new techniques. In-laws, individuals in distant cities, professional people, and those of vastly different backgrounds will touch upon your life during this trend.

Sun in the Third House

You are resourceful, creative, and magnanimous. At times you can be quite theatrical or dramatic in your presentations, enjoying the attention it creates. There is increased ambition for success and recognition of your mental qualifications. The ability to express and communicate your ideas is extremely important to you at this time. You are eager to investigate new things, whether scientific or technical. A sense of inner pride may urge you to attain more knowledge to achieve distinction through intellectual accomplishments. Frequent short trips may be possible during this trend. Activities with close relatives and siblings are enhanced.

Sun Square Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Apr 28, 2006

You may be extremely sensitive during the next three years, and rejection of any kind can create a difficult ego problem. This is not the time to push career matters or enter into new undertakings. Nor is it suitable for asking favors of men in general, either a parent or boss. Safeguard your health by getting regular check-ups. Don't feel as though you have to do everything, even if you have trouble delegating jobs to others. Chest pains do not always indicate a heart problem; they could be a warning signal that you are under too much stress.

Venus in Sagittarius

Venus is associated with affections and harmonious conditions. Previous acts of jealousy and possessiveness with close ties are lessening, as she progresses into the sign of Sagittarius. Your former fixed ideas and views are relaxing in their intensity. Your emotions will not rule your heart and head as strongly as they have in the past. Your attitude is free and lighthearted. You will come in contact with women, and make friends with those of a different or foreign background. Romance can blossom through travels or while attending educational classes. Luck and protection are in your favor in matters connected with finance, material possessions, and legal activities.

Venus in the Third House

Diplomatic or public relations work could be your forte at this time. You are gracious and well mannered, and communicate well through the written or spoken word. You do not sit in judgment of others or reach major decisions until you have thoroughly evaluated both sides of the issues at hand. You are drawn toward the intellectual and cultural pursuits. There may be some creative ability in the field of art, literature, poetry, or music. Short travels can be both pleasurable and profitable -- more so if accompanied by a companion, for you dislike traveling alone. Mutual benefits can be derived from brothers or sisters, either directly or indirectly.

Venus Sextile Uranus (Prg-Nat) May 13, 2006

Latent original, creative, and inventive abilities may develop into moneymaking hobbies. Make the most of this trend by reviewing your unique talents and determining how you can expand upon them. This period has all the earmarks of a changing condition that is likely to produce a pleasant, altering state of affairs. There is a magnetic quality about you that is likely to draw unconventional -- yet exciting -- social and romantic opportunities. There is a chance of financial gain through artistic pursuits, romantic attachments and marriage, or business partnerships. You may be offered a public relations position, or one as social director for a club or organization, or for a company involved with group-related activities.

Venus Sextile Mercury (Prg-Nat) Aug 8, 2006

You should be in a pleasant and happy frame of mind. This influence activates social affairs, wedding invitations, and birth announcements within the family circle. Pleasant changes in personal affairs may include pleasurable short trips. You can effectively combine social and business travels. This is an excellent trend for public relations work, promotional advertising, or dealing with the general public. At times you may be called upon to attend social functions in connection with your business or career. Women and female relatives can be of beneficial assistance, either directly or indirectly.

Venus Sextile Uranus (Prg-Prg) Oct 11, 2007

Latent original, creative, and inventive abilities may develop into moneymaking hobbies. Make the most of this trend by reviewing your unique talents and determining how you can expand upon them. This period has all the earmarks of a changing condition that is likely to produce a pleasant, altering state of affairs. There is a magnetic quality about you that is likely to draw unconventional -- yet exciting -- social and romantic opportunities. There is a chance of financial gain through artistic pursuits, romantic attachments and marriage, or business partnerships. You may be offered a public relations position, or one as social director for a club or organization, or for a company involved with group-related activities.

Capricorn on the Fourth Cusp

This is the sign of culmination, where matters come to a head. Old stagnant conditions involving personal projects, a family member, or a parent will be finalized. This is the time to establish good relationships between yourself and a parent. Don't continue to handle those difficult tasks alone. It is time for others to take some of the burdens and responsibilities off your shoulders. If you are thinking of purchasing property, no doubt you will want one surrounded by woods and in an isolated area. During this trend, there will be times when you will feel emotionally drained, lonely, and perhaps personally restricted by parents or small children who demand constant attention.

Aquarius on the Fifth Cusp

You may feel a profound interest in working with groups of people. They can provide the backdrop for such hobbies as astrology, computer clubs, or building model airplanes. Convention is going out the door as the romance department takes on a new coloring. You appear to be seeking the unconventional and different in style and appearance. Willingness on the part of others to do the unexpected is exciting to you. Working with groups of children may be in your near future. Expect the unexpected in actions and decisions concerned with the affairs of your children. Should investments interest you, try products dealing with aeronautics, computers, video, radio, television, or electronics.

Jupiter in the Fifth House

You are projecting an air of self-confidence and self-assurance that meets the approval of others, thereby increasing your popularity. There is the possibility of mingling and forming close associations with people of a higher social status than your own. This is an excellent placement for those who want to conceive children, teach, or take an active role in the educational process. Listen to your intuition. It can provide lucky hunches when dealing with investments, gambling, the race track, or football pools. Travel may be connected with schools, attending sporting events, fan clubs, gambling casinos, or visiting children who reside in distant cities. Opportunities for romantic involvements may activate social affairs. Your free-spirited attitude may require some control to prevent casual affairs from developing into serious situations. Lawsuits or legal entanglements may surround affairs dealing with children, night clubs, and places of entertainment or sports.

Pisces on the Sixth Cusp

You feel intuitively that your future calls for a change in your vocation. If in the past you have worked in the medical or institutional field, you may consider returning to that profession. Others may go for psychiatry, photography, or merely operating a beverage store or a bar. Environmental conditions appear to have a strong influence on your state of mind and ability to handle your work-related tasks. Arguments, confusion, and frequent upheavals at work can play havoc with your nervous system. Try to avoid those that upset you emotionally, mentally, or physically to prevent any reaction on your health.

Aries on the Seventh Cusp

New individuals and associates of the aggressive, independent, and decisive type are likely to enter your life during this trend. You may see a changing situation developing in partnerships, marriage, or business. They are starting to take the lead in personal actions and enterprise. Compromise will be the theme word to avoid confrontations when you feel they are getting too bossy. Your social life should take an active upward trend.

Taurus on the Eighth Cusp

Money and valued possessions will come your way from time to time, through the resources of others. Insurance claims are likely to be settled in your behalf. There is the possibility of an inheritance or expensive gifts from others. Because you give of yourself freely and completely in sexual relationships, you see nothing wrong in receiving monetary compensation in exchange. In fact, if a gift is not given or if you are not taken out to dinner, you may feel as though the other person doesn't care enough.

Gemini on the Ninth Cusp

If you are in higher education at this time, in all likelihood you will change your major and even your college in mid-term. You may be doing a great deal of letter writing or phone calling to a brother or sister in a distant city. Legal action is likely regarding a bus, car, motorcycle, or a neighbor.

Saturn in the Ninth House

You are straightforward and honest in your approach toward others. You have a keen sense of duty and are very conscious of your objectives, knowing full well their attainment may require patience, perseverance, and working in seclusion. The role of an instructor, either in college or adult education classes, may be in your future. You have tact, diplomacy, and know-how in dealing with mature individuals. Travel is likely to be connected with your vocation. On occasion, through a stroke of luck, you may be sent to the city of a distant relative, enabling you to combine business with family visits. Older people or those of political affiliation may prove to be more beneficial than others. Legal matters entered into at this time are likely to hit a snag, be delayed, or prove less rewarding than first anticipated. This placement is associated with concern or responsibilities in connection with in-laws or older relatives who reside at a distance.

Cancer on the Tenth Cusp

Direct contact with the general public may become a part of your new professional duties. You may find yourself working with very young babies or senior citizens. Real estate, foods, or beverages may also be a source of vocational interests. This is an excellent time to strengthen the emotional bonds between you and a parent.

Midheaven Sesquiquadrate Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Dec 22, 2007

This is not a very fortunate trend. Business and finances are at a slow pace, almost to the point of damaging your credit rating. This is not the time to undertake new ventures or a business enterprise. There will be a lack of cooperation with influential people, bosses, and government officials. Be careful in signing important contracts; you won't want to take on more than what you can actually handle at this time. Possible disputes involving social

Leo on the Eleventh Cusp

Your ego requires positive expression -- this may come through the holding of a high position with honors and esteem in some special club or organization. You exude a dramatic flair when working with groups of people and would, therefore, make a good entertainer or instructor. This sign is associated with step-children or daughter- and son-in-laws who have children from a previous marriage or relationship.

Virgo on the Twelfth Cusp

Working behind the scenes in places of confinement (such as hospitals, institutions, or jails) is possible. You cannot function well in an atmosphere of chaos and confusion. You can handle detailed matters with great efficiency if there is no one to disturb your train of thought or your methodical handling of tasks. You can locate any source of information intuitively, until someone starts rummaging through your desk or office material. This sign is associated with psychological health problems that are often expanded out of proportion.

Pluto in the Twelfth House

There will be a strong desire to work in secrecy, do research, or study subjects of a mysterious nature. There is an inclination to delve into the supernatural and unusual phenomena. Mysticism, yoga, and mind control are just a few of the topics that may hold your interest. This is also a period that calls for intense internal readjustment. You may be required to rid yourself of old and useless items and ideas. A school, college, the armed forces, or an institution may be involved with your transformation. You will learn to suppress or overcome your fears, change or alter some physical aspect of your body or style of dress, and rid yourself of bad habits. Guard against gullibility where joint finances are concerned. This is not the time to co-sign for monetary concerns involving others. Whatever you loan out, materially or financially, is not likely to be repaid or returned.
